 paper only, and address all communications to The Broad Ax, 5040 Armour avenue.

At the celebration of a marriage in the Roman Catholic Church, Dungen-en, recently a gun accident was attended by deplorable consequences. It would appear that as the bridesmaids were proceeding to the residence of the bride, a young man named James McCloskey borrowed a gun, which he proceeded to load with powder for the purpose of saluting the wedding party. As the bridesmaids were driving past McCloskey, who had just finished loading the gun, it was by some means discharged. Unfortunately, unknown to McCloskey, the weapon had contained a previous charge of powder and shot, and one of the girls, Cassie Gilderson, of Cre-barky, received the charge full in the neck and face, at a distance of about five yards. Miss Gilderson sustained shocking injuries, the left side of the neck being partially blown away, while the sight of the left eye was also destroyed and the jugular vein injured. It is feared that some of the pellets have lodged in the brain, and very little hope is entertained of her recovery.
